

Bryce Schroeder, Pro

Bryce Schoeder, who recently won the 2021 Mobetta Tournament of Champions at Paiute Golf Resort, is a professional golfer from Colorado pursuing her dream of playing on the LPGA Tour. As Bryce trains for her professional career, she works for BackSwing Golf Events to support and fundraise for causes she cares about.

Bryce finished Top 15 in 2021 Q-School Cactus Tour Prep Tournament, 5th at 2021 Cactus Sun City Women's Open, Top 2 at the 2020 Utah Women's Open, 18th at 2019 Arizona Women's Open. Bryce pursued her collegiate career at Wichita State University. While at Wichita State, she was a MVC All-Conference selection, MVC First-Team Scholar-Athlete Selection, and tied the program record for single-round score with a 67. She was named to the AD's honor roll for three years and also led the team at MVC Championship with a second-place finish in 2013.

Graduating with a Master of Science in Dental Hygiene, Bryce works part time as a surgical dental hygienist. She started working for BackSwing Golf Events in order to support her dream of playing professional golf.

info@backswinggolfevents.com